ABOUT ME

I'm Rashish Pandey, a Delhi-based video editor with over 4 years of dedicated experience, seamlessly blending creativity and technical prowess in every project. My journey started organically on YouTube, evolving into a flourishing career with a rich portfolio of 300+ projects, ranging from compelling ad films to engaging podcasts, interactive YouTube videos, and visually striking music videos. Collaborating with diverse clients and companies, as both a freelancer and team member, has honed my understanding of client expectations. Proficient in Premiere Pro and After Effects, I bring projects to life while staying ahead of editing trends. With a human touch to storytelling, I aim not only to meet but exceed the expectations of clients and employers. Excited to contribute my passion and expertise to your team, I look forward to exploring the possibilities of transforming ideas into captivating visual stories together.
